

(MEDIOR) CONSULTANT ROLE

#SustainablePublicAffairs is a first-of-its-kind public affairs agency that only lobbies for cases that have a positive impact on the environment.

As a B Corp™-certified PA consultancy, #SustainablePublicAffairs focuses on helping sustainable frontrunners to make their practices the market norm through more ambitious EU climate and environment policies. We are looking for a Consultant to accommodate the fast growth in clients.

How you will add value:

- Direct point of contact for clients, including managing client calls.
- Understand what the client needs and translate this into unique narratives for existing and new EU policy files (see here for more details).
- Develop a good knowledge of current policy developments and how they are affecting our clients' business.
- Help senior consultant in managing client work with juniors.
- Devise PA outreach strategies with senior consultant on European Green Deal policies related to environment and climate.
- Set-up and attend meetings with policymakers and other key stakeholders.
- Provide supporting analyses for the drafting of position papers, briefings, speeches and presentations for sustainable frontrunner clients.
- Establish a strong network with policymakers, industry/trade associations, media, and others to raise the profile of clients' issues and solutions.

What your background is:

- 2-4 years of solid EU public affairs experience that allows you to "hit the ground running".
- University degree or equivalent.
- Excellent knowledge of English (spoken and written). Additional languages like German or French are a plus.
- Highly proactive in translating policy intelligence into actionable recommendations for our frontrunner clients.
- Strong analytical background and ability to translate technical content into easily-understandable summaries and, once again, actionable recommendations.
- Quick learner with a positive, highly efficient work attitude who can also work independently.
- Hard worker and quality-focused with a keen eye for detail.
- Willingness and interest to work on a range of other topics.
- Knowledge of Excel (e.g. interactive charts, graphs, tables, VBA, ..) to support client work is a plus.
- Kind person and a team player who sees colleagues as also friends and likes to have drinks with them!

Other info:

- Planned starting date: ASAP.
- Location: Brussels.
- Full time employment (40h/week contract – 32 days/year of annual leave days).

A note on DEI

We embrace the importance of diversity, equity, and inclusion in our internal hiring practices and in our broader approach to public affairs work.

We consider these values essential, not only because it is right, but also because having a diverse range of voices and opinions on our team is smart business practice.

We therefore encourage individuals from historically disadvantaged backgrounds, whether by virtue of race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, ideology, religion, or other characteristics reflecting significant social categories or fractures, to apply for this position.
